About Us

Loved Ones was established in 1996. For almost two decades, Loved Ones has provided in home personal care and nursing services that are designed to provide a health care option for a variety of patients who would normally be placed in a nursing home or residential care/assisted living facility.

Loved Ones Provides Assistance with:

- Bathing
- Dressing
- Grooming
- Environmental
- Essential Errands
- Community Activities
- Doctor Appointments
- Medication Reminders
- And More

Clinical studies have proven again and again that patients who are maintained and receive necessary care in the safe, familiar environment of their home, surrounded by their loved ones, have a significantly higher level of general health and quality of life. Loved Ones provides a broad scope of nursing and home health services to assist our patients with personal care and the activities of daily living while remaining at home. Loved Ones cares for both elderly and disabled individuals.

Director's Note:

Fairies stirring up trouble, young lovers, and amateur actors; add in a love potion and trouble is going to happen! A Midsummer Night's Dream, the fairy-tale farce, is an incredibly physical play, and then a wicked director throws in masks, and some of the movements from Commedia dell'arte (Which is a comedic improvisation from the time of Shakespeare, and for four hundred years has used big, silly movements and situations to make audiences laugh!) I'm surprised my cast didn't beat me to death with a copy of the Complete Works! For many of the young actors in the cast this was their introduction to performing Shakespeare, it has been wonderful to see them become comfortable with the ability to speak like Yoda. You may be surprised by the naughtiness in this play, but Shakespeare never wrote anything that was completely polite, particularly not any of his romantic comedies! I hope you enjoy the zany antics of the players as much as I have. Marlette Carter
